a guided holiday to unveil Southern Spain's hidden treasures

9-13 July 2012

Discover hidden Andalucía

Granada and its surroundings bring together natural beauty, stunning countryside, culture, architecture as well as a wonderful climate, which makes Granada one of a kind. Here, in this privileged destination, nature is merged with history and the mountains of the Sierra Nevada with the Mediterranean Sierra. In this guided holiday, you will be able to explore some of these amazing locations, discovering hidden treasures off the beaten track, and enjoying wholesome, homemade traditional Andalusian food.

The holiday is offered as a package that includes:

- ▶ Day-time excursions, including guided visits of the Al'hambra Palace and Gardens in Granada, the Lecrín Valley, the Alpujarras white villages, and GR7 nature walk.
- ▶ Candle-lit flamenco performance in the hacienda.
- ▶ Free time to enjoy the sun, the swimming-pool and relax at the hacienda.
- ▶ Accommodation in en-suite bedroom at losOlivos.
- ▶ Full Board (breakfast, lunch, dinner, hot drinks and snacks through the day). It does not include wine or alcoholic beverages, which can be purchased from the guest bar.

The programme for this holiday will begin on Monday at 5pm and will end on Friday at 3pm.

You can book additional days at the beginning or end of this holiday, at an Open House rate. Please, see the "Holiday" section of our website form more information.
